

Arts & Culture

ARLINGTON GOODTIMES CHORUS

<http://harmonize.com/goodtimes>

Men's Barbershop Chorus that has been entertaining audiences in Arlington since 1962. See website for upcoming performances.

ARLINGTON MASTER CHORALE

(817) 460-SING

www.arlingtonmasterchorale.org

The Master Chorale, an accomplished a capella choir, is one of the few area choruses that regularly performs with an orchestra. Regular admission $10, half price for students and seniors.

Carl Orff's Carmina Burana and Leonard Bernstein's Chichestor Psalms performance April 16

CREATIVE ARTS THEATRE & SCHOOL

305 W. Main St.; (817) 275-7661

www.creativearts.org

One of the oldest operating youth theatres in the nation and the only youth theatre in the DFW area featuring children as the performers and the backstage crew. Regular admission $6-15; discounts for students, seniors and groups of 10 or more.

Peter Rabbit & Benjamin Bunny March 27-April 5

Into The Woods May 1-10

Go Dog Go June 16-18

Dear Edwina Jr. July 7-9

The Five Little Peppers & How They Grew Aug. 4-6

FIELDER HOUSE MUSEUM

1616 W. Abram St.; (817) 460-4001

www.arlingtonxhistoricalsociety.org/fielder

Arlington's history through the decades is told with photographs and artifacts. Home of the Arlington Historical Society and the Arlington Preservation Foundation, with permanent exhibits including a general store, barber shop and a replica steam train. Call for hours and tours.

KNAPP HERITAGE PARK

201 W. Front; (817) 460-4001

www.arlingtonxhistoricalsociety.org/knapp

Dedicated in 2004, this downtown park contains three of Arlington's oldest structures. Available for school tours, rentals and private tours.

LEVITT PAVILION

100 W. Abram St. (corner of Abram and Center streets); (817) 543-4301

www.levittpavilionarlington.org

The pavilion opened in 2008 and provides free concerts with a broad-based, eclectic list of performers. Local, regional, national and international musical acts perform everything from world music to jazz, reggae and country, to hot Latin rhythms. Free admission; open lawn seating; picnics and coolers welcome. See website for 2009 season performances.

METROPOLITAN CLASSICAL BALLET

500 West Abram St.

(817) 275-0598 – Ballet Ticket Office

www.mcballet.org

See website for upcoming performances.

SYMPHONY ARLINGTON

(817) 385-0484

www.symphonyarlington.org

2009 Season will feature the symphonies of Howard Hilliard performing Richard Strauss's Horn Concerto No. 1., and many more guest artists. Groups of 10 or more receive a 10% discount.

THE UPSTAIRS GALLERY

1038 W. Abram St.; (817) 277-6961

www.upstairsartgallery.com

T-Sat 11am-5pm

For 40 years the Upstairs Gallery has been showing the work of Arlington area artists: paintings, pottery and jewelry. Art classes available for children and adults.

THEATRE ARLINGTON

305 W. Main St.; (817) 275-7661

www.theatrearlington.org

One of the largest community theaters in the nation, celebrating 35 years of quality live entertainment. Year-round plays, musicals, classes and special events. Events room and 199-person auditorium available for rent. General admission between $10-$20; groups of 10 or more receive a 20% discount on all performances.

Are We There Yet? Mar. 27-April 26

The House of Blue Leaves May 8-24

Harvey Aug. 7-30

UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AT ARLINGTON, THE GALLERY OF UTA

Fine Arts Building, 502 S. Cooper St.

(817) 272-3110; www.uta.edu/gallery

The Gallery presents current trends and ideas that engage contemporary artists from a variety of perspectives. Free and open to public.

UT DEPARTMENT OF THEATRE ARTS

www.uta.edu/theatre

For more than 70 years, UTA Theatre has produced quality entertainment with the finest young talents. See website for information on times.

The Robber Bridegroom March 4-8

Spring TheatreFest - One Act Plays and Performances April 22-25

A Lie of the Mind April 23, 25 at 8 pm,

April 26 at 2:30 pm

